Discussion

Building 931 is a small wooden shed (approximate size of an Outhouse) located south of the Sewage Treatment Plant, in a low-lying wetlands area. The building was a weather shelter for a surface water monitoring station. There is no electrical power or other utilities associated with the shed.

Based on the very low probability of any type of contamination inside or outside of the building, this RFCA anticipated Type 1 facility can be demolished utilizing the WRE (Waste Release Evaluation) process rather than performing a RLC (Reconnaissance Level Characterization). A Waste Release Evaluation will be performed for disposal of the building debris. This approach was discussed and concurred with during the bi-weekly status meeting held January 5th, 2005.
